

50 ways to experience the outdoors! Check out below for ideas on how to get out and about this summer!

<https://royalmileprimary.files.wordpress.com/2020/06/50-ways-to-experience-outdoors-1.pdf>

My favourite way to relax over the summer is to become absorbed in a really good book. You can access lots of eBooks and audiobooks using your Edinburgh Libraries card-a simple how to is attached below:

<https://royalmileprimary.files.wordpress.com/2020/06/how-to-access-ebooks-and-audiobooks.pdf>

Art Attack! If you would like to explore a range of creative ideas over the summer, check out the link below. There are lots of different ideas for @home art. Have a look back through the weeks to see if anything takes your fancy.

Explore our Creative Curriculum

Active Challenges! Below are a series of links to different websites which have posted ideas for fun activities to try. Enjoy!

<https://www.unicefkidpower.org/summer-activities-kids/>

For when it is wet outside:

<https://www.nhs.uk/change4life/activities/indoor-activities>

Now quite a few of these may be postponed or moved online so read the descriptions carefully.

<https://www.whatsoninedinburgh.co.uk/events/summer-holiday/>

Other suggestions: You may want to start a film club with a friend using Netflix, YouTube or Disney +. You can watch the films together virtually and chat about how you found them.

You may want to explore your culinary skills over the holidays!

This is a link to the British Nutrition Foundation with cook-along videos of healthy new dishes to try:

<https://www.nutrition.org.uk/healthyliving/hewathome/getcookingwithbnf.html>

BBC Good Food has lots of recipes. You can search by ingredients, there are reviews of recipes from users. Recipes will tell you how long it will take to make and how hard it is.

<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/>

Summer Reading Challenge

The theme for this year's reading challenge is Silly Squad. You can get rewards, play games and earn badges as you discover awesome books to read this summer. Go to www.summerreadingchallenge.org.uk to sign up.

Library Resources Reminder: If you are a member of Edinburgh Libraries and have access to the online account, you can borrow 1000s of e-books and audiobooks with Edinburgh Libraries downloadable services. These are available to use 24/7 and can be used on tablets, smartphones and computers. If you click on this link <https://edinburgh.overdrive.com/library/kids#> you can browse the kids' books available. If you find one you like, then just click borrow. You will then be asked to enter your card number and pin. You can then choose to read it in the browser (you will need to be connected to the internet while doing this) or you can download it, instructions on how to download it can be found here <https://yourlibrary.edinburgh.gov.uk/web/arena/overdrive-on-computer>

